

A corrupt Director reads his D&O policy 😊

Shit, it's inevitable
 They will raise my deductible!
 I've been so vulnerable
 Exposed and miserable...
 But reliable! And available!

I've been accused of omissions
 Failures, errors, petty ambitions...
 Mismanagement and lack of vision
 Plus inadequate supervision

They suspect I'm at fault
 For misrepresentation and fraud
 Negligence and collusion
 (I'm worried about THAT exclusion....)

All I've done is slightly bend
 The dumb rules of the game...
 I find it rather lame
 That they have lodged a claim
 And I'm the one to blame !

I might have been out of compliance...
 When I formed this secret alliance...
 It's not rocket science
 To fool the compliance!

I might have rigged a tender
 And staged a fender-bender
 Engaged in small collusion
 Due to a slight confusion...

Oh God, if they only knew...
 That I'm rotten through and through
 What am I gonna do??

But I have a plan
 How to get myself out
 Of this shitty scam:

Being a pro,
 I'll use my D&O!
